RAE LIFESTYLE

HOMEWARE / VINTAGE / LIFESTYLE

A day trip to Rye is a must for anyone visiting the Sussex coast, made all the better by the wonderful selection of independent shops the town offers. One of the many retail highlights is Rae Lifestyle, a small but perfectly formed store, run by Alexa and Eduardo. The pair believe in the principles of slow living: valuing quality over quantity, small batch production and ethical and sustainable practices. Together they handpick vintage items from around the UK and Europe, complementing these with objects created by independent makers.
